June 19-23, 2013 – LGBTQA Camp in Minnesota !!! register now !

We are very excited for another year of Camp Camp Revolution – where camp is campy – Camp is fabulous and is for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and allied youth ages 13-18 !!!

Big news! The camp name is going to change to Camp True Colors, Minnesota – because the True Colors Fund will be supporting camp and our fabulous camp partner One Heartland ! Participants will experience activities such as canoeing, fishing, wall climbing, swimming, crafts, bon fires & singing camp songs along with fabulous education on LGBTQ topics and of course dances(with disco ball) & performance. Camp is accessible! Transportation, food, cabin lodging are all provided. But you need to register now ! <https://www.oneheartland.org/register.html> or contact Stefanie at 888.545.6658 stefanieTC@oneheartland.org

*Opportunity for young GLBTQ artists/activists . Help us spread the word, please!

Minneapolis television Network is partnering with filmmaker and educator Melissa Koch to run a FREE 12 week program that will teach young people how to make a documentary from the ground up. We provide the equipment, Melissa provides the instruction, and each member of the group will leave having produced a short documentary that will air on MTN's Channel 17/Create.

When: June 6 - August 29 Tuesdays and Thursdays 12-3

How much: Free, we provide bus tokens and food

What: During the Queer Youth Documentary Project, young people will discuss effective storytelling, meet with other local film makers, watch other examples of powerful documentary projects, while learning the basics of cinematography, lighting, sound recording, editing, and motion graphics.

Who: Ages 16-23 GLBTQ identified artists and activists interested young people email mvanavery@mtn.org telling us why they are interested and if they have any previous experience with making movies/video production by the end of May.
